Month of the Dead - November is a month in which the Church remembers our dead. Of course we pray for our deceased relatives all year round, but November is the month in which we give our prayers a particular resonance. The idea might seem gloomy, but it's a wonderful way of celebrating the lives of those who have gone before us. More than that, if we seek to emulate the qualities we admired in our loved ones, this can prove a very real way of keeping part of them alive in us. The unexpected 'plus' is that this can help with our grieving process.

November Dead List 2018: Remembering Our Loved Ones Who Have Died - It barely seems a year since we launched our 2017 November Dead list. During this last year I have just about nearly completed celebrating all the Masses that came in. It's time once again to launch the list for 2018. November is traditionally associated with prayer for the Holy Souls, particularly members of our families, friends and benefactors. The Scriptures remind us that 'it is a good and noble thing to pray for the dead.' Masses will be offered in November and throughout the year for those whose names are on the Dead List. Envelopes are now available for this purpose at the back of church. Please place a list with the names of your deceased relatives and friends, and all for whom you wish to pray in the envelope with your offering/donation, writing your own name on the front as indicated and return in the box provided at the back of Church.

All are welcome to attend and after the Mass there will be refreshments where the Sixth Form students will welcome the opportunity to share time with you.
