Dear All,

Times of change and transition are difficult for many of us, and so I come to you as your new Parish Priest seeking to serve St Joseph's parish and people in the best possible way, and to the best of my abilities. It is inevitable that there will be some changes, it is not just about change for change's sake, but rather just working with what I have, and where I'm at. Please be patient with me, but be assured I am here to be your pastor, priest and friend on the journey. Our Lady & St Joseph, pray for us! Fr Stephen.

The Bulletin:

Please excuse the look of the bulletin in the short term. As yet, I am unable to print using the photocopier - and so other arrangements have had to be made for this week! I only moved into the presbytery on Thursday and so there is still much to do in order to set-up the office as well as the rest of the house...please bear with me until I'm fully on top of things. If you have any notices for the bulletin in future, please email them to me or post them through the presbytery letterbox, the deadline each week will be Thursday noon. Many thanks!

Mass Times:

Having spoken with Fr Neil about Mass times, and having taken his advice, I have published the times of Masses above for the upcoming week - again it may take a while for things to bed in, as I also continue my responsibilities at the Army Foundation College each week. If you have intentions for Masses, please submit them in the usual way, and I will endeavour to offer them on the dates requested.

Ministries in Church:

Please do let me know if you perform duties and ministries in church - I would hate to offend anyone by not realising what you wonderful folks of St Joseph's parish already do, but it will take me quite some time to get to grips with everything - especially learning a lot of new names and faces!
