Church During Lockdown:

At the moment our church has had to close inline with the new Government restrictions which came into force on 5th November. We have been told that we are only permitted to open our churches for Private Prayer and for the celebration of Funeral Rites (still limited to 30 people). These restrictions mean that I have cancelled all public Masses until December, (they are no longer available on eventbrite until after that date), and through the generosity of our Stewards we are opening church for Private Prayer at the following times:

Sunday 2.00pm - 4.00pm

Tuesday 6.00pm - 7.30pm

Friday 10.00am—12.00noon

If you are willing to offer your services as a Steward, please contact Elaine Flannigan on 07791 500359.

A weekend Mass will be available on our YouTube channel from 5.30pm on Saturday evening, this weekend's will be a test of the new streaming capabilities, please bear with us as the technology beds in - the Mass should then become available on the YouTube channel after it has been streamed.

Let us keep each other in prayer during these coming weeks, and if you are able to collect a few bulletins whilst the church is open, to deliver to parishioners who may be shielding or isolating, then please do so.

Please remember to let me know of anyone who may need particular pastoral or practical help during this time. Thank you. Fr Stephen.

Remembrance: 1945-2020:*Archives, Diocese of Leeds:

Seventy-five years ago, in November 1945, the nation gathered in Remembrance for the first time since the end of the Second World War and on the first occasion that the dead of two world wars were remembered. This year's Remembrance Sunday on 8 November will be unlike any other since that time but that does not mean that the sacrifice of those who gave their lives in the World Wars of the twentieth century will be forgotten. We will remember them.

In advance of this year's Remembrance Sunday and marking three quarters of a century since the end of World War II, Fr Nicholas Hird and Dr James Hagerty prepared a short history of the Diocese of Leeds in the years 1939-45 and the impact of the war on the local Church. It serves as a salutary reminder of the hardships and anxieties experienced by a previous generation as we face the challenges of the present. You can read or download a copy of Fr Hird and Dr Hagerty's study at:

Also James Hagerty recently published No Ordinary Shepherds – Catholic Chaplains to the British Forces in the Second World War.

Over 900 chaplains served all branches of the armed forces throughout the war. Relying on evidence that includes hitherto unseen personal records and papers,

James Hagerty tells the many and varied stories of unarmed priests who willingly went into battle alongside the men and women they had volunteered to serve. This book follows Dr Hagerty's ground-breaking history of Catholic chaplains in the First World War, Priests in Uniform, described by The Tablet as 'a comprehensive and compelling portrait'. Published by Gracewing <http://www.gracewing.co.uk/> ISBN 978 0 85244 955 4 512 pages £25.00 Hardback

First Sacraments Catch-up Programmes:

First Holy Communion: Resources have now been handed out to families taking part in this and at the moment, it appears that we will celebrate two special Masses both on Saturday 12th December, (post-lockdown restrictions permitting). I have emailed all parents and carers of the children involved, but am still waiting for a number of replies. Once all these have come in, I can continue with planning and preparations.

November - Month of the Holy Souls

Masses for the Holy Souls are being offered throughout the whole of November and beyond. To date, those who are entered into our Book of the November Dead will have a share in 104 Masses.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen

What Next for Parish Music Ministry?

After the first period of lockdown here in the UK, the reopening of churches saw congregations gathering for worship without communal song. And now, this second period of lockdown underscores the possibility that it could be a very long time before we hear our congregations singing again. The big question, that I have been asking for some time now is: What does that mean for the ministry of music and song in our parishes right now and for the foreseeable future? he pandemic brings a set of challenges and restrictions that we need to learn to navigate resourcefully. And as we strive to find a way forward I think we need to focus on five practical pillars... I've you'd like to find out what these pillars are and explore these issues further please join me for a free online workshop on Tuesday 17 November at 7:00pm. The workshop is entitled How To Sustain Parish Music Ministry in a Pandemic. Not a very catchy title, I know... But hopefully it will help us to do just what it says on the proverbial tin! You can register for the workshop at www.cjmmusic.com/pmm We need to get on with the work of re-imagining parish music ministry for this pandemic era and for the future, because the prospect of our music groups and choirs declining into non-existence doesn't really bear thinking about. I look forward to seeing you online next Tuesday. With every blessing, Jo Boyce.
